June 10, 1928.

"COLLIERS"

William Collier Married Ada Arnold June 22, 1799.

William Collier married Nancy Black and had the following children: John born 1805, William born 1808, Matilda born 1810.

William Collier was single under 25 years of age and a member of St. Martins Espiscopal Church Worcester Parish, Worcester County, Md. July 1762.

Vines Collier of Brunswick County, Va., was appointed ensign in Va. Colonial Army 1758, serving under Capt. Edward Goodrich.

William Parham was a private in the same company.

Daniel Collier was a private in the same company.

Alexander Collier was a private from Augusta County in the Colonial War, 1758.

Christopher Hudson was a Capt. in the Colonial Army in 1758 from Handover County.

Benj. T. Collier was deposed as Administrator with will annexed for managing the estate of James W. Collier. (Ordinary's Court Pike County, Oct. term, 1858, Ordinary Minutes.)

Benj. T. Collier was administrator of the estate of James W. Collier. (Pike County Ordinary's Minute Book A. Page 60, Ordinary's Court Oct. 6, 1856., Joseph C. Beckham, Ordinary.)

John T. Collier was the executor of the estate of James Pearson, Oct. 3, 1864, (Pike County Ordinary's Office Book A, Page 427.)

Obedyer C. Gibson was an attorney residing in Thomaston, Ga., along about the year 1850 and handled many cases all over several counties adjacent, and for this gentleman Robert Marshall Collier named one of his sons, Obedyer Gibson Collier. This boy died before he was grown up and is buried near the Thomas Bass Greene place 3 miles southwest of The Rock on the highway from The Rock to Thomaston, or at_____ M. E. Church on Route 3 highway 3 or 4 miles north of Thomaston. (Taken from Ordinary's Minute Books of Pike County, A.B.C.)

Records regarding Benjamin T. Collier's administration on the estate of James W. Collier appears on Page 499-524 of the Ordinary's Minute Book, Pike County, Ga.

Robert Marshall Collier appears to have been administrator of the estate of Wilson Whatley. (Ordinary's Minute Book C, Page 212-218-341-383-389.)

Greene Hardaway Collier's will appears on Page 368 Pike County Ordinary's record Will Book D.

James W. Collier appears to have been administrator of the Williams estate. (Ordinary's Minute Book C, page 135-136, Pike County, Georgia.)

Isaac Collier was born _____1846 and went into the Civil War between the North and South in 1864; was a member of _____Company under Capt._____Hordnett. He was too young to go out with the regular army and was staioned at Andersonville, Ga. under Major Wirz_____
He was in one or two skirmishes at Ocean Pond, Fla. and while at Andersonville was striken with typhoid fever which rendered him unableto return to the Confederate Army for several months. He died at Piedmont, Ga. July 11, 1808. He was a grandson of Robert & Martha Marshall Booker Collier and great-grandson of Vines & Sarah Williamson Collier.